

Social-Emotional Activities for Babies 9-15 Months Old

Keep a home routine for eating, sleeping, diapering, and playtime. Talk to your baby about routines and what will be next. This will help her feel secure.	Let your baby know every day how much you love him and how special he is—when he wakes up in the morning and when he goes to sleep at night.	Play on the floor with your baby every day. Crawl around with her, or just get down and play on her level. She will really enjoy having you to herself.	Play simple games with your baby, such as Pat-a-cake, Peekaboo, and Hide and Seek, or chase each other. Laugh and have fun together!
Your baby can “help” you while you are making dinner. Have a drawer or cupboard that is full of safe kitchen items, such as measuring cups and big spoons, that he can empty.	Play gentle tickle games with your baby, but make sure to stop when she lets you know she has had enough. Watch her carefully and you will know.	Dance to music with your baby. Hold his hands while he bends up and down. Clap and praise him when he “dances” by himself.	Play name games with your baby, such as “Where is Rita?”
Go on a walk to a park or a place where children play. Let your baby watch them and visit a little if he is ready.	Play with child-safe mirrors* with your baby. Make silly expressions and talk to your baby about what she is seeing in the reflection.	Twirl your baby around. He will enjoy a little rough-and-tumble play, but make sure you stop when he has had enough.	Read together with your baby. Before naptime and bedtime are great times to read together. Let your baby choose the book and snuggle up!
Let your baby have as many choices as possible about foods, clothing, toys, and events. She will enjoy making choices.	Invite a friend over who has a baby or young child. Make sure you have enough toys for both children. It is a little early for them to know about sharing.	Sit on the floor with your baby and roll a ball back and forth. Clap your hands when your baby pushes the ball or “catches” the ball with his hands.	When you are dressing or diapering your baby, talk about her body parts and show her your body parts. Say, “Here is Daddy’s nose. Here is Destiny’s nose.”
