Colors help make our world a beautiful place. Don't you agree?

I love to play a game of finding colors. Would you like to help me play my game?

I am looking for the color red.

How many red things can you find?

Blue is the color of the sky.
How many blue things can you find?

I really love green.

Do you know why?

How many green things can you find?

Yellow is the color of the sun.

How many yellow things can you find?

Purple is the color of violets.

How many purple things can you find?

I am looking for orange things.
How many orange things can you find?

I am looking for things that are pink.

How many pink things can you find?

Colors make the world more interesting.
My favorite color is green.

What is your favorite color?
